Our 3-hour interactive course includes everything you need to know about saving precious time providing feedback to students using Google Tools and more!

When students aren't using feedback to improve, we are wasting our nights and weekends. But there's a better way. In this course, you will learn to offer feedback your students can and will use in a fraction of the time you spend marking papers. Learn new ways to offer feedback using G Suite and other free tools. You will earn 3 hours credit for completing this course.

What's Included...

Get to Know the Chrome Browser

Take a tour of the Chrome browser and learn all the reasons why it is so much more than just a browser.

The Wonders of Google Docs

Experience how to use Google Docs for more than just a word processing tool including voice typing, extracting text from images, collaboration tools, version history and more.

Tools for Assignments; Google Slides

Slides can be used in a variety of different ways. Learn how to format them to fit your purposes and how to utilize the templates function.

Tools for Feedback: Extensions

Chrome extensions open a world of possibilities. Learn about a few of our favorites, Read&Write, WriQ, Screencastify and Bitmoji.

Annotate PDFs Collaboratively: Kami

Kami is a Chrome app that allows you to annotate, markup, and collaborate on your PDFs, documents, or image files.
